

Stockholm, April 6, 2018

The Swedish Institute is a government agency promoting interest and confidence in Sweden around the world. We have a special mission to promote Sweden as a destination for higher education and in this capacity cooperate with Swedish universities.

Letter of certification,

Ms. Gülşah Bilen, Founder,
SwedenEdu

Participated in a training course for agents in Stockholm on September 6-7, 2017 on branding of Sweden as a study destination and how to increase cooperation with stake holders in Sweden, organized by the Swedish Institute.

Ms. Bilen was selected for the course upon recommendation from Swedish universities and the Swedish Institute. This was the first time this event was organized, and Ms. Bilen was in the first group of educational consultants who participated in and completed the training.

Based on the participation in the training course, Ms. Bilen and SwedenEdu has the full confidence of the Swedish Institute. She has agreed to obey by the code of conduct as developed by the Swedish Institute in collaboration with the universities of Sweden.

Best regards,

Adam Sarac, Programme Manager, Swedish Institute
